Welcome to the Winter Edition of DIAL News!

It has been a positive start to the year for DIAL. The Local Authority, DMBC, have agreed to extend our contract for a further twelve months to provide a Welfare Benefits and Tribunal Service in Doncaster. The demand for this service has continued to grow over the last year and appeal representation is now a major part of our service provision. Our skilled teams continue to provide a quality service often working very hard to achieve a positive outcome for those clients in need of our support to have a voice.

Our volunteers are an integral part of ensuring that DIAL works more effectively and we are looking to build capacity within this area of the organisation by offering some new and exciting roles, specifically for volunteers. We are hosting a volunteer recruitment event on Tuesday 18th February so if you are interested in finding out more then come along, further details can be found by clicking on the link at the bottom left hand column on this page. You will be able to talk to some of our volunteers and gain an insight into their volunteering experience. Staff will be on hand to discuss the various volunteering opportunities available.

Appeal Process Changes

Since the 28th October 2013, there have been changes to the appeal procedure against decisions made on benefit claims including Personal Independence Payment, Income Support, Winter Fuel Payment and other DWP benefits. If you are not happy with a decision made by the DWP, your first course of action is to contact them to discuss it. You can also request a copy of the written reasons at this stage. If you are still unhappy with the decision you have to formally request a 'mandatory reconsideration' by telephone or in writing. This has to be requested within one month of the original decision (or one month and 14 days if you previously requested written reasons). The DWP will then look at your claim again and send you a response. It is important that you keep this mandatory reconsideration notice as you will be required to submit it at the appeal stage. You have one month from the date of your mandatory reconsideration notice to then make an appeal. To do this you are required to complete the form 'Notice of Appeal Against a Decision of the DWP' (SSCS1) and enclose the mandatory reconsideration notice. For further information on the appeal procedure go to www.gov.uk/appeal-benefit or contact DIAL Doncaster on 01302 327800 for advice.

Further Benefits Training for DIAL Staff and Volunteers

To ensure that our Welfare Rights Officers and Helpline Advisers can continue to deliver appropriate and up to date advice and support with certain welfare benefit issues, staff and volunteers are undergoing in-house training on both Universal Credit and Personal Independence Payment. The training is being provided by Sheffield Debt Support Unit. They can offer various courses and specialist training which can be tailored to suit your needs. For further information on the courses available call 0114 250 1144 or visit debtsupportunit.org.uk.

DIAL Awarded 'Registered Charity of the Year' by CVS

Doncaster CVS recently celebrated its 70th year and as part of the celebrations, the 'Community and Voluntary Sector Awards' were launched to recognise the achievements of local individuals and organisations in the voluntary sector.

DIAL Doncaster was chosen to receive the 'Registered Charity of the Year' award which was sponsored by Taylor Bracewell. This award was given to DIAL, as an organisation 'that has consistently delivered outstanding service to its beneficiaries, promoted and raised its cause, been clear in its goals and demonstrated excellence all round', so to receive this award was a great honour.

Young People with a Learning Disability an Inspiration

Young people recently celebrated completing a City and Guilds accredited 'Managing Personal Finance' course which has helped improve their money skills in order to live more independently. The group from Doncaster took part in a project called Inspire Me, set up by Mencap and ENABLE Scotland to support 25,000 young people with a learning disability aged 14-25 across the UK. Inspire Me is funded by The Co-operative Charity of the Year partnership which has raised over £7 million for young people with a learning disability.

The Inspire Me project provides activities and training that give young people with a learning disability the chance to learn new skills and to build their confidence.

Young people from Mencap's Housing and Support Service in Doncaster took part in the course and learned about the importance of budgeting, the differences between essential and non essential purchases, the potential consequences of overspending as well as the potential dangers of borrowing from pay day loans and credit card companies.

Charlene Robson, the Youth Coordinator for the Inspire Me project in Yorkshire explained, "I feel very privileged to have worked with the group at Doncaster Mencap. Everyone worked so hard during the course. Managing finances can be a challenging subject but the group did not let this discourage them. Their hard work and determination is an inspiration. It is so important to provide young people with the tools to improve their skills and confidence with money management, which Inspire Me does in a unique and fun way".

Marshall Barclay, a young person on the course, has explained how the course has helped him, "The course has given me more understanding of my money. I am normally quite a shy person but Mencap are helping me be more confident. I have found the course very interesting". Daniel Danford also shared his views about the course and explained "I have really enjoyed it. I've liked working with new people and I have learned new skills".

The group are looking forward to celebrating what should be a fantastic reward for all of their hard work; a certificate in Employability and Personal Development from City and Guilds.

If you would like to find out more about Inspire Me or refer a young person contact Laura Down, Regional PA - Inspire Me and Projects on 0121 722 5916.

There are a number of initiatives and benefits available to help people keep their homes well-insulated and energy efficient, so warmth and wellbeing can be maintained, particularly during the winter months. Below are various schemes and contact details of where people can go to get valuable advice and information on energy efficiency and money-saving tips.

The Warm Home Discount Scheme - If you, or your partner, are in receipt of the Guarantee Credit element of Pension Credit, you may be entitled to a £135 discount on your electricity bill. Green Deal Initiative - This government scheme can help you make energy-saving improvements to your home without having to pay any up front costs. The Green Deal is a loan so will have to be paid back over time, through your energy bills. Visit www.greendealinitiative.co.uk for details.

Energy Company Obligation - If you are getting certain benefits, you may qualify for help with energy-saving improvements if you own your home or privately rent (prior consent from the owner is required before making any changes). To find out if you qualify, and what help may be available, contact the Energy Saving Advice

Service on 0300 123 1234.

Energy Grants Calculator - If you're looking for help with heating costs, home insulation or a new boiler, the Government has an online energy grants calculator to work out if you are eligible for any help towards the costs. Go to www.gov.uk/energy-grants-calculator to find out what help may be available.

Training sessions have included confidence building, safeguarding, essential interview techniques, suicide awareness and gateway assessments. The Trainee Advisers have also been shadowing workers from other local agencies to get a better understanding of the work they do within the local community.
